

GEORGIA MUSIC HALL OF FAME

presents

The Heeey Baby Days OF BEACH MUSIC

ON EXHIBIT
Sept. 9 – March 31, 2007

In the '60s, scores of bands sprung up all over the Southeast, each imitating the big, highly danceable R&B sounds coming from labels such as Motown, Atlantic and Chess. In his newly published anthology, The Heeey Baby Days of Beach Music: Stories and Remembrances of a Southern Music Genre, Georgia-born author Greg Haynes documents the stories of these party bands.

OPENING RECEPTION & BOOK SIGNING
October 6, 2006, 7 p.m.

The exhibit at the Georgia Music Hall of Fame highlights key promoters and bands from Georgia including the Tams, the Swingin' Medallions, Georgia Prophets, the Blue Notes, Bill Lowery, Ray Whitley, Cotton Carrier and more.

Georgia
georgia.org

200 MLK Jr. Blvd. | (I-16 Exit 2), Macon, GA
888-GA-ROCKS | www.gamusichall.com